

Above All...Honesty

David Firth

This is what you said you see in me.

Generosity of spirit, acceptance of oneself,

Passion and the willingness to follow it and;

An open heart, mind, and eyes are

Qualities you say you love in me.

The capacity for humor, intimacy, and joy,

Patience and the willingness to grow.

One who values love, justice, and forgiveness.

Action over words. A time to play.

Living with compassion and

Deeply in the moment.

Who can be both teacher and the student

Humbly respecting both; yet...

Above all...honesty.

All of this and more you find in me.

And when you tell me what you see

I believe that's it's all true;

For who you see is someone

Being loved by you.
