

For She Is...Love

David Firth

Love is gentle. Love is kind.
Love's not envious nor is love blind.
As a matter of fact, love is super-sighted for she sees the good in us all.

Love is gentle yet can be tough.
Love gets going when the going gets rough.
Love continues to listen even when nothings said
For she hears the song in us all.

Love is open to challenge and growth.
Love's not either / or but most times both.
Love can be nourishing but also will fast
For she feeds the hunger in us all.

Love gives comfort to those who mourn.
Love afflicts us when we're too comfortable.
Love will not compromise yet stays flexible
For she is the best in us all.

You see in each one of us there are three main life resources
None of which will go to waste. I speak of faith, hope, and love
Of our God, ourselves and others which satisfies with just a taste.

Love reaps justice by sowing peace.
Love invites and welcomes all to her feast.
Love is not easy yet always a choice
For she is the greatest gift of all.

You see in each one of us there are three main life resources
None of which will go to waste. I speak of faith, hope, and love
Of our God, ourselves and others which satisfies with just a taste

Love is painful when freely given.
Love is slow to judge yet quick to forgive.
All of life is quite empty without the breath of love
For she is the soul in us all.

Copyright © 1996 by David Firth