

I Want To Live

David Firth

I want to live. I want to love.
I want to soar like the hawk up above.
I want to dance. I want to sing.
I want to live all the life given me.

I want to live. I want to love.
I want to feel whatever feeling comes up.
I want to laugh uncontrollably deep.
I want to live all the life given me.

I want to live. I want to love.
With passion and zeal no matter the cost.
I want to give and learn to receive.
I want to live all the life given me.

I want to live. I want to love.
Even when hard or unnoticed or tough.
I want to belong and I want to free.
I want to live all the life given me.

I want to live. I want to love.
My family and neighbor, the earth and myself.
I want to create and I want to dream.
I want to live all the life given me.

I want to live. I want to love.
I want to soar like the hawk up above.
I want to dance. I want to sing.
I want to live all the life given me.

I want to live. I want to love.
I want to soar like the hawk up above.
I want to dance. I want to sing.
I want to live all the life given me.
