

Joyful Love of You

David Firth

I'm not sure if when I wake tomorrow the sun is going to shine.
I'm not sure why I can't let go and leave the past behind.
I'm not sure if I tag along or if I lead the way.
I don't know why this boat of mine won't ever leave the bay.
I'm not sure if I move too fast or painfully too slow.
I'm not sure why when the sign says stop I inch ahead and go.

But I'm sure because of you my life has been enriched.
I am sure you blow away my fear with just a smile and just one kiss.
I am sure that you give me wings so I can fly across the moon.
And more than anything I'm sure of my joyful love of you.

I'm not sure that I can navigate the map in front of me.
I'm not sure why there's times that I just can't or don't want to see.
And I'm not sure if there's a God above or a spirit deep inside.
I'm not sure how but up til now somehow find me when I want to hide.

But I'm sure because of you my life has been enriched.
I am sure you blow away my fear with just a smile and just one kiss.
I am sure you give me wings so I can fly across the moon.
And more than anything I'm sure of my joyful love of you.

I am sure though the world's a mess I see peace shining in your eyes.
I am sure I could make it alone but I want you by my side.

But I'm sure because of you my life has been enriched.
I am sure you blow away my fear with just a smile and just one kiss.
I am sure you give me wings so I can fly across the moon.
And more than anything I'm sure of my joyful love of you.

And more than anything I'm sure of my joyful love of you.
