

Lefty's Lullaby

David Firth

Close your eyes and sleep My Lefty.
Drift on gentle waters of peace.
Ride your dreams deep into your soul,
Where you can play all day with me.

Rest your head on my chest like a pillow.
Listen to your heart dance with mine
On a beach where the sea turtles fly,
And a parrot sings lullabies.

Trust the still cold night to bath your mind with delight
In the joy of being a child.
And when grown-up games leave you lost in the rain
Let your dreams lead you back to the truth.

Close your eyes and sleep My Lefty.
Drift on gentle waters of peace.
Ride your dreams deep into your soul
Where you can play all day with me.

Where you believe you are your dreams.
