

My Destiny

David Firth

It was time that I decided I wasn't going to fight it.
So I opened up my heart and soul to what might be.

And on that very day, you stepped into my way.
When I looked into your eyes I could see you were
My destiny.

Now here we stand
I want to tell the world that I love you.
When times are good and when times are bad,
I love you.
I'll wear your wedding ring
as a sign that I will always be true.
'Cause I opened up my heart to you,
My Destiny.

Music Interlude:

We know it won't be easy. The winds of life get breezy.
I'll lift you up when you are down and when it's cold you'll warm me in your arms.

I'm glad that I decided I wasn't going to fight it
And I opened up my heart to you,
My Destiny.

Now here we are
I want to tell the world that
I love you.
When times are good and times are bad,
I love you.
I'll wear your wedding ring
as a sign that I will always be true.
'Cause I opened up my heart to you
My Destiny...My Destiny.

Copyright © 2017 by David Firth