

Why the Smile

David Firth

Vs 1 Someone asked me just the other day. “Why the smile upon your face and what’s behind the light shining in your eyes? What’s at the center of your daily life and is there something you value beyond all price? And by the way, what’s the secret of your smile?”

Refrain: I said “It’s family and in my family, though we’re a thousand miles apart
We’re as close as the autumn wind. And like the hawk up above,
We soar on the wings of love. And the best part of it all
My family are my friends.”

Vs 2 “It all begins you see with, mom and dad; sixty years and counting ain’t all that bad as they built a home using faith and trust and care. And with their seven life can come undone but none of us is perfect and that’s half the fun. What matters most we all know we belong.”

Refrain: I said “It’s family and in my family, though we’re a thousand miles apart
We’re as close as the autumn wind. And like the hawk up above,
We soar on the wings of love. And the best part of it all
My family are my friends.”

Vs 3 “If you don’t mind there’s just one thing more, I have kids and grandkids that I adore and MyBeloved, it the greatest gift of all. And like my siblings and my parents believe The precious gift of life is family. And that, my friend, is the secret of my smile.”

Refrain: “Oh, Family, ‘cause in my family, though we’re a thousand miles apart
we’re as close as the autumn wind. And like the hawk up above, we soar on the wings of love. And the best part of it all
my family are my friends.”

“If you ask me why the smile my family are my friends.”

Copyright © 2012 by David Firth