

Please Forgive Me

David Firth

Please forgive me for the promises I haven't kept.
Please forgive me when I would tease you until you wept.
Please forgive me when my head is in the sky.
When I don't look you in the eyes.
For not seeing you.

Please forgive me when I am stubborn and refuse to bend.
Please forgive me when I'm not there to be your friend.
Please forgive me for not telling you the truth,
Afraid to trust in you and the love we share.
Please forgive me.

I've decided I just can't hide it
I'm a fool in every likely way.
And I want to change starting with today
By offering a contrite heart and soul.

Please forgive me for not telling you the truth,
Afraid to trust in you and the love we share.

Please forgive me for the many things I don't recall.
Please forgive me for all the times to come when I will fall.
Please forgive me your love will set me free.
You deserve a better me
And I believe you have the right to hear me say,
Please forgive me.

Please forgive me.

Copyright © 2020 by David Firth