

I Can Love

David Alan Firth

I can't sing. I can't dance. I can't write a song or tell a joke or mend your pants.

And I can't think deep thoughts, I get confused.

But there are some special things that God

Would like for me to do.

I can love. I can smile.

I can laugh with you or share your pain or

Just sit and listen for a while.

And I can pray. I can dream.

I can spend my life giving all God gave to me.

I can't act. Or remember facts. I'm not all that cute. I can't play the flute

Or win at jacks. And I can't

Bake a cake without making it taste like glue.

But there are some special things that God

Would like for me to do.

I can love. I can smile.

I can laugh with you or share your pain or

Just sit and listen for a while.

And I can pray. I can dream.

I can spend my life giving all God gave to me.

I can love. I can smile. Or just sit with you, for a while..

I can pray.

Copyright © 1976, 2022 by David Alan Firth