

It's Found In Jesus

David Alan Firth

Where is the peace we all can rest in?
Where are the arms we all can nest in?
And where is the heart that beats in unison with all?
And where are the hands that help us up
When we fall?

And where is the dream that's based in vision?
And where is the love that loves without condition?
And where is the touch that heals our brokenness and pain?
And where is the voice that calls us
All by name?

It's found in Jesus. It's found in Jesus.
It's found in Him who was then and is now
And forever will be.
It's found in Jesus. It's found in Jesus.
It's found Jesus.....the Lord.

And where is the truth we'll daily die for?
And in that same truth we've cause to hope for?
And where is the light that guides our way and
Warms us from the cold?
And where is the food that feeds our starving souls?

It's found in Jesus. It's found in Jesus.
It's found in Him who was then and is now
And forever will be.
It's found in Jesus. It's found in Jesus.
It's found Jesus.....the Lord.
