

The Faith Cafe

David Alan Firth

It's Sunday night and the food is all gone. Life is hard and you're feeling down.
A home cooked meal will take the blues away and a taste of hope
Will brighten up your day.

The tables are set and the banquet prepared.
The doors wide open so just come on in.
It's love we serve on a plain, white plate
Welcome to the Faith Cafe.

A bunch of grapes, turkey and a roll can renew the spirit and refresh the soul.
The people here are kind and the music is great.
Your order is ready so don't hesitate.

The tables are set and the banquet prepared.
The doors wide open so just come on in.
It's love we serve on a plain, white plate
Welcome to the Faith Cafe.

It's all about love and the folks really care.
We're the Faith Cafe and there's no preaching here.
So gather up the kiddies and just follow the light.
Sweet Jesus loves you and there's chicken tonight.

The tables are set and the banquet prepared.
The doors wide open so just come on in.
It's love we serve on a plain, white plate
Welcome to the Faith Cafe.
Welcome to the Faith Cafe.

Copyright © 2005, 2022 by David Alan Firth